

Announcement

“Doing Research Our Way – Celebrating 10 years of RHS”

Critical up-to-date information on the latest health issues impacting First Nations today!

First Nations Research Conference
November 13, 14 & 15, 2005
Government Conference Centre
2 Rideau St., Ottawa, ON

Conference Highlights

- Release of the First Nations Regional Longitudinal Health Survey (RHS) results on the health of Children, Youth and Adults
 - National and Regional Reports
- Showcasing Community-based Research/Health Initiatives
 - Workshops and Presentations
- Understanding and Implementing Ownership, Control, Access, and Possession (OCAP)
 - Understanding Self-Determination in Research, Cultural Frameworks, How to become a Data Warrior!
- Critical up-to-date information on the latest health issues impacting First Nations
 - Blueprint, Integration, Health Indicators

“Our Voice, Our Survey, Our Future!”

First Nations
Regional Longitudinal
Health Survey

Enquête Régionale
Longitudinale
sur la Santé des
Premières Nations

Call for Community-based Abstracts/Presentations coming soon!

For more information, please contact:

Colleen Toulouse @First Nations Centre at (613) 237-9462 ext. 500

E-mail: ctoulouse@naho.ca Website: www.naho.ca/fnc/rhs

